

Grading Practices

School: Princess Anne High School

Subject(s): MYP English

Grade Level: 9

Homework

Completion of homework is vital to the success of the student. Homework will be incorporated into the formative or summative grading category. The grading categories that equal 100% of the grade are divided into formative grades (50%) and summative grades (50%)

Late Work

Late work will be accepted at the teacher's discretion.

Explanation of Zeroes

A zero means that a student has submitted no work or the work has not merited points.

Reassessment

Students may be reassessed upon completion of agreed upon remediation.

Make-up Work

Students may make up work that has been missed by absences within a calendar week without penalty as long as it does not result in an INC on the report card, in which case it must be approved by the principal.

Extra Credit

Extra credit is not offered in this course.
